Barbra Herr's
I'M STILL HERR

Barbra Herr's one woman cabaret show is all lip, no sync as she tells the true tale of Bobby Hernandez, a little bullied Boricua boy from the Bronx who grew up to be the woman of her own dreams. The delicious diva's story is told through the memories and musical stylings of the transgender artist/activist. Directed by the Helen Hayes Award nominee, Luis Caballero (La Lupe and DC7: The Roberto Clemente Story) and musical direction by Rachel Kaufman

THE WIND IS SPIRIT: THE LIFE, LOVE AND LEGACY OF AUDRE LORDE

Dr. Gloria Joseph, the late Audre Lorde's partner, visits the Bronx to discuss her new book The Wind is Spirit: The Life, Love and Legacy of Audre Lorde. The book was born from an interview conducted a few months prior to Lorde's death. They discussed a comprehensive biography that would tell her story in full, revealing her tenacity, complexity and passion. With that mandate, Joseph sat down to the task of creating The Wind is Spirit, and got other writers to contribute stories as well. The evening includes a book signing and a Q&A moderated by Majora Carter (left).
